Case No.: 07-cv-2297-BTM-NLS

1 I, Karin E. Fisch, certify under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct:

2       1. I am a partner at the law firm of Abbey Spanier Rodd & Abrams, LLP, counsel for 3 Westchester Capital Management, Inc. and Green & Smith Investment Management L.L.C.
4 (together, “Westchester Capital”). I submit this certification pursuant to Local Rule 7.1(i)(1), 5 together with the exhibits annexed hereto, in support of Westchester Capital’s Motion for 6 Reconsideration of this Court’s May 22, 2008 Order Granting Motions to Consolidate, Appointing 7 New Jersey Carpenters Pension and Benefit Fund as Lead Plaintiff, and Approving Lead Counsel 8 Selection (the “Lead Plaintiff Order”).

9       2. On January 28, 2008, Westchester Capital filed its Notice of Motion and Motion by 10 Class Members Westchester Capital Management, Inc. and Green & Smith Investment 11 Management L.L.C. for the Consolidation of All Related Actions, for Appointment as Lead 12 Plaintiff and for Approval of Lead Plaintiff’s Selection of Lead Counsel. A competing motion was 13 filed by the New Jersey Carpenter Pension and Benefit Funds (the “Carpenter Funds”).

14       3. After the competing motions were fully briefed, but without hearing oral argument, 15 the Court granted the motions to consolidate and appointed the Carpenter Funds as the Lead 16 Plaintiff in the litigation. The Court also approved the Carpenter Funds’ selection of Lead 17 Counsel.

18       4. In appointing the Carpenter Funds as the Lead Plaintiff, the Court found that 19 Westchester Capital had not established that it had “authority to sue on behalf of the funds.” Order 20 at 5 (Ex. A, hereto). The Court disagreed with the courts that have held that if an investment 21 advisor has unrestricted decision-making authority in connection with its clients’ accounts, then it 22 has standing to sue in its own right. Id. The Court further found that certain language in the 23 Certification of Roy Behren, the Chief Compliance Officer of Westchester Capital and the 24 underlying funds, cast doubt on whether there had been a “specific grant of authority to sue on 25 behalf of the funds.” Id. at 7. The Court did not cite to any evidence submitted by the Carpenter 26 Funds refuting Mr. Behren’s statement, issued as Chief Compliance Officer, that Westchester 27 Capital had authority to commence litigation on its own behalf and on behalf of the underlying 28 funds. The Court also expressed concern with the fact that certain of the underlying funds were foreign entities. Id.

5. The decision of the Court was relayed to Westchester Capital. Mr. Behren, surprised that his statement as Chief Compliance Officer of the funds that he was attorney-in-fact authorized to take all acts of behalf of the funds had been questioned, conveyed the substance of the decision to the trustees of the underlying funds. The Trustees of the funds promptly executed Consents confirming their longstanding belief that each adviser had and has had "standing and authority under the Advisory Agreements to commence and pursue lawsuits on behalf of the funds." (Exhibits B and C, attached hereto).

6. In light of the Court's concern regarding foreign entities acting as Lead Plaintiff, attached hereto (Ex. D) is a damage chart that was run by counsel on January 11, 2008 showing that over 88% of the losses suffered by the funds advised by Westchester Capital were suffered in the Merger Fund, a Massachusetts business trust. The losses of the Merger Fund alone dwarf the losses suffered by the Carpenter Funds. Also attached hereto, as Exhibit B, is the Consent Action of the Board of Trustees of the Merger Fund and The Merger Fund VL, the two domestic funds, confirming the authority of Westchester Capital to pursue this specific lawsuit on their behalves.

7. For ease of reference, the Certification of Lead Plaintiff Pursuant to Federal Securities Laws signed by Roy Behren is attached hereto as Exhibit E and the subsequent Declaration of Roy Behren is attached hereto as Exhibit F.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States, that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief. Executed this 23rd day of June, 2008 at New York, New York.

KARIN E. FISCH

26 Westchester Capital Management, Inc. ("Westchester") and Green & Smith 27 Investment Management LLC ("G&S") have filed a motion to consolidate the above-28 captioned actions, to be appointed as lead plaintiff, and to approve their selected counsel as

 2 have also filed a motion to consolidate the actions, to be appointed as lead plaintiff, and to

9                   I. BACKGROUND

10 These class actions are brought on behalf of persons who purchased or otherwise 11 acquired securities of Leap Wireless International, Inc. ("Leap" or "Company"), during the 12 time period between May 16, 2004 and November 9, 2007.<sup>2</sup> All of the actions allege that 13 Leap and individual officers of the Company made material misrepresentations and 14 omissions of fact regarding the Company's revenues beginning in fiscal year 2004 and 15 continuing through the second quarter of fiscal year 2007. (The HCL Partners case also 16 names as a defendant PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP, which allegedly represented that 17 Leap's financial statements were in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted 18 in the United States of America.)

19 On November 9, 2007, Leap announced that it was restating its financial results going 20 back to fiscal year 2004 to correct for errors in previously reported service revenues, 21 equipment revenues, and operating expenses. According to Leap's press release, the most 22 significant adjustment related to the Company's prior accounting for a group of customers

23

24                   <sup>1</sup> Motions for appointment as lead plaintiff and for approval of lead counsel were also 25 filed by Louisiana Municipal Police Employees' Retirement System and by Alaska Electrical 26 Pension Fund jointly with Genesee County Employees' Retirement System. These motions 27 were subsequently withdrawn. The related action Charek v. Leap Wireless, et. al., Case No.
 28 07cv2256, was voluntarily dismissed on January 30, 2008. Campbell v. Leap Wireless, et al. was also voluntarily dismissed on May 7, 2008.

2                   <sup>2</sup> The class period in HCL Partners Limited Partnership v. Leap Wireless, Case No.
 27 07cv2245 BTM(NLS), is from May 16, 2004 to November 9, 2007, and is the longest class 28 period of the three actions.

1 who voluntarily disconnected service. After the November 9, 2007 announcement, the price
2 of the Company's publicly traded stock plummeted to close at $36.72 per share, declining 3 37% from the previous trading day's close of $58.10.

4 The actions allege that Defendants' material misrepresentations and omissions 5 caused the Company's securities to be overvalued and artificially inflated, causing damages 6 to Plaintiffs and other members of the class. The actions assert claims for violation of section 7 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 and violation of section 20(a) of the Exchange Act.

10 II. DISCUSSION

11 A. Consolidation

12 Consolidation may be appropriate when actions before the court involve a "common 13 question of law or fact ." Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(a). All of these actions cover approximately the 14 same time period, arise out of the same facts, and allege violations of the securities laws.
15 Defendants agree that the cases should be consolidated. Therefore, the Court grants the 16 motions for consolidation.
17
18

19 B. Lead Plaintiff & Lead Counsel

20 Competing motions to be appointed lead plaintiff and to approve selected counsel as 21 lead counsel have been filed by (1) Westchester and G&S, and (2) Carpenter Funds. As 22 discussed below, the Court finds that Carpenter Funds is most capable of adequately 23 representing the interests of class members.
24

25 1. Governing Law

26 Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act ("PSLRA"), no later than 20 days 27 after filing a class action securities complaint, a private plaintiff or plaintiffs must publish a 28 notice advising members of the purported plaintiff class of the pendency of the action, the

1 claims asserted, and that any member of the purported class may move the court to serve 2 as lead plaintiff. 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(A)(i). Not later than 60 days after the date on which 3 the notice is published, any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as 4 lead plaintiff of the purported class. Id.

5 Within 90 days after publication of the notice, the Court shall consider any motion 6 made by a class member to serve as lead plaintiff. 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(i). The Court 7 shall appoint as lead plaintiff "the member or members of the purported plaintiff class that the 8 court determines to be most capable of adequately representing the interests of class 9 members." Id.

10 The presumptively most adequate plaintiff is the one who "has the largest financial 11 interest in the relief sought by the class" and "otherwise satisfies the requirements of Rule 12 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure." 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(I). "In other 13 words, the district court must compare the financial stakes of the various plaintiffs and 14 determine which one has the most to gain from the lawsuit. It must then focus its attention 15 on that plaintiff and determine, based on the information he has provided in his pleadings and 16 declarations, whether he satisfies the requirements of Rule 23(a), in particular those of 17 'typicality' and 'adequacy.'" In re Cavanaugh, 306 F.3d 726, 730 (9th Cir. 2002).

18 The presumption of adequacy may be rebutted only upon proof by a member of the 19 purported plaintiff class that the presumptively most adequate plaintiff will not fairly and 20 adequately protect the interests of the class or is subject to unique defenses that render such 21 plaintiff incapable of adequately representing the class. 15 U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(iii)(II).
22 If the district court determines that the presumptive lead plaintiff does not meet the typicality 23 or adequacy requirement, the Court must then proceed to determine whether the plaintiff with 24 the next lower stake in the litigation has made a prima facie showing of typicality and 25 adequacy. Cavanaugh, 306 F.3d at 731. If so, that plaintiff becomes the presumptive lead 26 plaintiff and other plaintiffs must be given the opportunity to rebut that showing. Id.

27 A straightforward application of the statutory scheme "provides no occasion for 28 comparing plaintiffs with each other on any basis other than their financial stake in the case."

Case 3:07-cv-02245-BTM-NLS Document 38 Filed 05/22/2008 Page 5 of 9

1 Cavanaugh, 306 F.3d at 732. Once the Court identifies the plaintiff with the largest stake in 2 the litigation, "further inquiry must focus on that plaintiff alone and be limited to determining 3 whether he satisfies the other statutory requirements." Id.

5 2. Lead Plaintiff Analysis

7 a. Notice and Publication

8 On November 27, 2007, a notice regarding the HCL Partners lawsuit was published 9 on Market Wire. Both sets of movants filed their motions within 60 days. Therefore, the 10 motions are timely.<sup>3</sup>

11

12 b. Financial Interest

13 Westchester is the investment advisor to The Merger Fund and The Merger Fund VL.
 14 (Cert. of Lead Plaintiff (Ex. B to Kaboolian Decl.) ¶ 1.) G&S is the investment advisor to the 15 GS Master Trust, MSS Merger Arbitrage 2, and Institutional Benchmark Series (Master 16 Feeder) Limited. (Id.) Westchester and G&S are somehow "related," and Roy Behren is the 17 Chief Compliance Officer for both entities. (Cert. of Lead Plaintiff ¶ 2.) In claiming that they 18 have suffered the greatest financial loss, Westchester and G&S seek to consolidate the 19 losses suffered by the separate funds.

20 Carpenter Funds argues, among other things, that Westchester and G&S have not 21 established that they have authority to sue on behalf of the funds and therefore are not 22 qualified as lead plaintiff. The Court agrees with Carpenter Funds.

23 The courts are not in agreement when or if investment advisors may serve as Lead 24 Plaintiff based on the financial losses of their clients. Of the courts that permit investment 25 advisors to serve as lead plaintiff, many require that the investment advisor establish that it

27 <sup>3</sup> The Court need not reach Carpenter Funds' argument that Westchester and G&S 28 cannot supplement their initial filing with a revised chart recalculating their financial loss.
 Whether the Court calculates Westchester and G&S's financial losses based on their moving papers or their supplemental filings, the result of this motion is the same.

1 has specifically been authorized to bring suit on behalf of its clients. In Weisz v. Calpine
2 Corp., 2002 WL 32818827 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 19, 2002), the court explained that although it 3 appeared that the investment manager had discretionary authority with respect to its clients' 4 accounts, there was no evidence that the investment manager had been authorized by its 5 clients to bring securities law claims on their behalf. Accordingly, the Court found that the 6 investment manager had not demonstrated itself to be an adequate plaintiff within the 7 meaning of the PSLRA. See also In re Peregrine Systems, Inc. Sec. Litig., 2002 WL
8 3276939 (S.D. Cal. Oct. 11, 2002) (pointing out that although the investment company stated 9 that it had complete investment authority and was the attorney-in-fact with full power and 10 authority to act in connection with its investments, the investment company did not state that 11 it had authority to institute suit and litigate on behalf of its clients); Smith v. Suprema 12 Specialties, Inc., 206 F. Supp. 2d 627, 635 (D.N.J. 2002) ("The clients' mere grant of 13 authority to an investment manager to invest on its behalf does not confer authority to initiate 14 suit on its behalf. StoneRidge Investment has not provided the Court [with] any indication 15 that its members have given it authority to file lawsuits on its behalf."); In re eSpeed, Inc. Sec.
16 Litig., 232 F.R.D. 95 (S.D.N.Y. 2005) (explaining that in order for an investment advisor to 17 attain standing on behalf of the investors the advisor must be granted both unrestricted 18 decision-making authority and the specific right to recover on behalf of his clients).

19 The Court recognizes that some district courts have held that if an investment advisor 20 has unrestricted decision-making authority in connection with its clients' accounts, it is a 21 "purchaser" and has standing to sue in its own right, regardless of whether its clients formally 22 granted it the authority to sue on their behalf. See In re Rent-Way Sec. Litig., 218 F.R.D. 101 23 (W.D. Pa. 2003); In re Sonus Networks, Inc. Sec. Litig., 247 F.R.D. 244 (D. Mass. 2007).
24 Although an investment advisor may have standing to sue on its own behalf in certain 25 circumstances, the Court agrees with the courts that hold that to the extent an investment 26 advisor seeks to claim losses suffered by its clients in a bid to qualify as lead plaintiff, the 27 investment advisor must show that its clients specifically authorized it to bring securities law 28 claims on their behalf.

1 Westchester and G&S have not shown that their clients delegated the authority to sue 2 for losses sustained by the funds. In the Certification of Lead Plaintiff, Behren states:

3 Westchester Capital is the Adviser to and has full discretion and controls all 4 investments made by The Merger Fund and The Merger Fund VL. G&S is the 5 adviser to and has full discretion and controls all investments made by the GS
Master Trust, MSS Merger Arbitrage 2, and Institutional Benchmarks Series (Master Feeder) Limited.

6 (Ex. B to Kaboolian Decl.) Notably, Behren does not state that the funds authorized 7 Westchester and G&S to sue on their behalf.

8 In a subsequently filed declaration, Behren reiterates that Westchester and G&S "have 9 unrestricted decision-making authority with respect to the funds that they advise and 10 manage." (Behren Decl. ¶ 2.) Behren further states:

11 It is my understanding that if an investment adviser has full discretion and 12 control, as the Westchester Movants do on behalf of these funds, and is the 13 attorney-in-fact authorized to undertake all acts, as the Westchester Movants 14 are on behalf of these funds, then that investment Adviser has standing to 15 commence legal action on its own behalf, including seeking to be appointed as 16 the lead plaintiff in this action.

17 (Behren Decl. ¶ 4) (emphasis added). It is clear from this statement that there has been no 18 specific grant of authority to sue on behalf of the funds.

19 Although Behren states that he is "authorized to undertake all acts" on the behalf of 20 Westchester and G&S (Behren Decl. ¶ 3), he does not state that he has been authorized to 21 undertake all acts on behalf of the funds.

22 Accordingly, Westchester and G&S do not qualify as lead plaintiff. The presumptively 23 most adequate plaintiff is Carpenter Funds, which expended approximately $907,701.16 to 24 purchase 13,800 shares of Leap during the Class Period.

25 The Court notes that even if Westchester and G&S had authority to sue on behalf of 26 the funds, the Court would have concerns regarding their ability to adequately represent the 27 class. As investment advisors, Westchester & G&S may be subject to unique defenses.
28 Complicating matters further, the funds are foreign entities based in the Caribbean. However, because Westchester and G&S are not the presumptively most adequate plaintiff, the Court need not determine whether the presumption of adequacy has been rebutted.

1                   c. Typicality and Adequacy

2         No member of the purported plaintiff class has rebutted the presumption of Carpenter 3         Funds' adequacy as lead plaintiff by offering proof that Carpenter Funds will not fairly and 4         adequately protect the interests of the class, or is subject to unique defenses that render it
5         incapable of adequately representing the class. Based upon the record before it, the Court 6         is satisfied that Carpenter Funds' claims are typical and that Carpenter Funds is capable of 7         adequately representing the class. Therefore, the Court appoints Carpenter Funds as lead 8         plaintiff.

10                  3. Lead Counsel Analysis

11         Under the PSLRA, once the court has designated a lead plaintiff, that plaintiff "shall 12         subject to the approval of the court, select and retain counsel to represent the class." 15 13         U.S.C. § 78u-4(a)(3)(B)(v).

14         Carpenter Funds ask the Court to approve their selection of Schoengold Sporn 15         Laitman & Lometti, P.C., as lead counsel and Glancy Binkow & Goldberg LLP to serve as 16         local "liaison counsel." It appears that these firms have the appropriate expertise to fulfill 17         their roles as lead counsel and liaison counsel.

18         Accordingly, the Court approves Schoengold Sporn Laitman & Lometti, P.C., as lead 19         counsel and Glancy Binkow & Goldberg LLP as local liaison counsel.

20

21                  III. CONCLUSION

22         For the reasons discussed above, the motions to consolidate are GRANTED. Case 23         Nos. 07cv2245 and 08cv128 are hereby CONSOLIDATED for all pretrial proceedings. The 24         caption page on all future filings shall contain all of the captions. All future docketing will be 25         done in Case No. 07cv2245, which shall be the main file.

26         The Court GRANTS Carpenter Funds' motion to be appointed lead plaintiff. The 27         Court also GRANTS Carpenter Funds' motion for approval of lead counsel. The Court
28         approves Schoengold Sporn Laitman & Lometti, P.C., as lead counsel and Glancy Binkow

(the "Adviser") has discretion and authority under each of (i) the Investment Advisory Contract, dated January 31, 1989, by and between TMF and the Adviser and (ii) the Investment Advisory Agreement, dated as of July 1, 2003, by and between VL and the Adviser, respectively (the "Advisory Agreements"), to commence Lawsuits on behalf of the Funds and/or participate as lead plaintiff or otherwise in Lawsuits for the benefit of the Funds;

1. Westchester Capital is the Adviser to and has full discretion and controls all investments made by The Merger Fund and The Merger Fund VI. 1       1. I, Roy Behren, am Chief Compliance Officer for both Westchester Capital
2 Management Inc. and Green & Smith Investment Management L.L.C. (the "Westchester 3 Movants"). I make this declaration in further support of the motion to appoint the Westchester 4 Movants as attorney-in-fact to take all actions on behalf of The Merger Fund, The Merger Fund
5 VL, the GS Master Trust, MSS Merger Arbitrage 2 and Institutional Benchmarks Series (Master 6 Feeder) Limited, as the Lead Plaintiff in the above captioned actions.

8       2. As stated in my previous Certification, Westchester Capital is the Adviser to, and 9 has full and complete discretion over and controls all investments made by The Merger Fund and 10 The Merger Fund VL. Green & Smith is the Adviser to, and has full and complete discretion over 11 and controls all investments made by the GS Master Trust, MSS Merger Arbitrage 2 and 12 Institutional Benchmarks Series (Master Feeder) Limited. Both Advisers have unrestricted 13 decision-making authority with respect to the funds that they advise and manage.
14

15      3. I am the Chief Compliance Officer of Westchester Capital and Green & Smith and 16 am authorized to undertake all acts on their behalves, including the right to commence legal 17 action and the right to seek to serve as lead plaintiff in this and any other action arising under the 18 Private Securities Litigation Reform Act.

19      4. It is my understanding that if an investment adviser has full discretion and control, 20 as the Westchester Movants do on behalf of these funds, and is the attorney-in-fact authorized to 21 undertake all acts, as the Westchester Movants are on behalf of these funds, then that investment 22 Adviser has standing to commence legal action on its own behalf, including seeking to be 23 appointed as the lead plaintiff in this action.
24

25      5. As a result of the investment made in Leap common stock by the Westchester 26 Movants, the funds have the largest financial stake of any class member seeking appointment as 27
28

1 lead plaintiff in the above captioned actions and therefore the Westchester Movants as attorneys 2 in-fact for these funds believe they should be appointed as lead plaintiff in this action.

3 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the 4 foregoing is true and correct.
